RE: International Heritage, Inc.
Case No.: 98-02675-5-ATS
Chapter 7
Claim No.: 003343
Amount: $14,850.00

Dear People:

I am writing to ask for reconsideration of lost wages from International Heritage Incorporated. Following is an itemization of my lost wages: $10,500 in weekly wages; $3,000 lost wages for Pin Rank—six months at Director @$500 per month; $1,350 wages not paid for the Flex Plan for consumables sold. I also did not receive products which I had paid for.

I realize that written proof is needed for lost wages and that I only have my compiled list of unpaid earnings which I kept track of week to week. Therefore, I am requesting the $4,300 of wages earned within 90 days before the bankruptcy filing. I am submitting copies of my parents' calendar of 1998 as proof of wages, more than the allowed $4,300. My wages are written in the Friday column. Please note week 39, September 25th, Wendy $2,500; week 41, October 9th, Wendy $2500. I swear that this calendar is authentic and has been kept intact since September of 1998. Information was collected from IDCC, our International Heritage Incorporated communication system. We were able to listen to how much our earnings were for each center we had week to week. My mother listened to my information weekly and recorded it on her calendar.

Thank you very much,

Wendy J. Bisbey Ethington
